

Teresa Reder

Her years of Army Service
1943 to 1945

In Training

Teresa trained on obstacles like the one below when stationed at Fort Oglethorp, Georgia.

Her training included hiking ten miles while wearing a backpack and an obstacle course, where she crawled on her belly under barbed wire.

At the engine cleaning ramp.
Engineer Replacement Training
Center Motor Pool
Fort Leonard Wood, Missouri
October 1943

Over the debarcation tower.
Annie Skomro
Teresa Reder
Dorothy Holz
Fort Leonard Wood, Missouri
November 1943

Hanging out with friends

T/4 Strawser, T/5 Crain, and Sgt. Reder in personnel carrier.
Motor Pool
Fort Leonard Wood,
Missouri
August 1943

T/5 Hall,
Reder, and Banks
Fort Leonard Wood,
Missouri
September 1943

Teresa and her two buddies
atop Lookout Mountain, Tennessee.
From left to right,
Edith Coates, Marion
Strawser, Teresa Reder.
Near Fort Oglethorp,
Georgia

T. Reder and E. Davidson
at Barracks 1770.
Davidson left the Army in August.
Fort Leonard Wood, Missouri
August 1943

Reder, Weinstein, & Gross in front of 1770.
Teresa was just leaving on pass to Ohio.
Fort Leonard Wood, Missouri
August 1943

Teresa at a party, posing for a sketch by Ted Egri.
Hollandia, New Guinea
Circa. 1944

Visiting Home

The house where Teresa grew up is in the background to the left, the summer kitchen is to the right. Pictured with Teresa are Jeannie Huber and one of Catherine's kids.

Teresa visiting home in Barberton,
Ohio.
Circa. 1943

Below:
From the tallest on down,
Teresa, Joey Madjerick,
Jeannie and Eleanor Huber,
and George's kids

Teresa's Beau

Tom Kelly and monkey.
Hollandia, New Guinea
General MacArthur's
Headquarters
Circa. 1944

Driving past the office on top of Cylops Mountain.
New Guinea

Tom Kelly and Teresa Reder
Cyclops Mountain
New Guinea

Tom Kelly at work in the Adjutant General's Office.
New Guinea
Circa. 1944

Teresa and Tom's Wedding

December 1, 1945
Officer's Club
Westover Field, Massachusetts

Seated at table below:
First Lt. Pat Palopoli (Best Man),
First Lt. Thomas A. Kelly,
Teresa R. Kelly, and Margaret (Peg) Reder

